Agenda of the Meeting: Review of the course structure of BPT and MPT

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MEETING

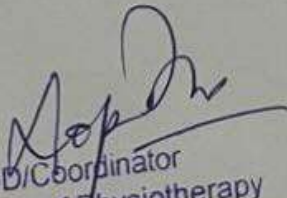

The meeting commenced with a welcome address by Dr. Lopa Das (PT), Associate Professor and Coordinator, Department of Physiotherapy, RSMAS

After due deliberations, the following resolutions were adopted:

1. Dr. Mayur Das (PT) was satisfied with the overall course content in both BPT and MPT, and emphasized on keeping the minor projects in practical oriented subjects like Electrotherapy and Exercise Therapy.
2. Dr. Aniruddha Deka suggested that certain online teaching courses should be incorporated along with the ongoing course curriculum to facilitate the teaching process and for the benefit of the students. He also shared links of certain online courses.
3. Dr. Arijit Chakraborty emphasized on the role of Physiology in the Physiotherapy curriculum and the focus has to be given on the musculoskeletal system. He also suggested to add certain topics like occupational therapy and ergonomics in the syllabus. Knowledge of these through a subject would be really helpful in practical applications when they walk into a working environment.
4. Dr. P. Rajith was overall satisfied with the course content in BPT, but enquired about the MPT course structure in the newly add specialization "Physiotherapy in Neurology". He also advised to add certain topics on veterinary physiotherapy, which could be beneficial for students who are willing to go abroad after their course completion.
5. Dr. Subhashis Debnath was also satisfied with the course content of BPT and MPT. He also suggested suggested to shift the Pharmacology subject to 4th and 5th semester instead of 3rd and 4th semester.
6. Three specializations will be offered for Masters of Physiotherapy:
 - i. MPT in ORTHOPAEDICS AND MANUAL THERAPY.
 - ii. MPT in ORTHOPAEDICS AND SPORTS.
 - iii. MPT IN NEUROLOGY.

Motion of the Meeting: All the suggestions from the members have been duly noted down and required changes have been incorporated in the course structure.

Vote of Thanks: The meeting concluded with Dr. Rupesh Kumar, Assistant Professor and Coordinator, Department of Medical Lab Technology, RSMAS offering vote of thanks to the Chair and the members present.
