Report of Awareness programme in coordination with the Narcotics Control Bureau, Guwahati on "Drug Menace and its effect on the masses especially youth and students " event:

NSS_RGU in collaboration with DSW coordinated an awareness programme with the Narcotics Control Bureau on " Drug Menace and its effect on the masses especially youth and students " on March 17, 2023, from 1:00 pm to 2:30 pm at D Block 1st floor Seminar Hall. NSS student volunteers, as well as students from the social work department and various other departments, and a few faculty members, attended this awareness programme. The resource persons for the program were

Shri K.V. Robinson Gangte

Superintendent, Narcotics Control Bureau, Guwahati,

Shri LhunkholalGuite

Intelligence Officer, Narcotics Control Bureau, Guwahati,

Shri P.N. Jha

Intelligence Officer, Narcotics Control Bureau, Guwahati

One of the speakers of the event, Shri Lhunkholal Guite, conveyed his vast knowledge of many drugs, their effects when consumed, and the signs of drug addiction through his creative presentation. The attendees gained a completely new understanding of the world of narcotics due to the eye-opening experience. The history of the Narcotics Control Bureau and the classification of drugs, including narcotics, psychoactive substances, controlled substances, and other substances, were covered in the presentation's opening.

Following his speech, Shri P.N. Jha extended his gratitude to everybody for participating and making the event a success. As a part of this program, all the students, along with the faculties, took the pledge "Say yes to life, no to drugs" of the Ministry of Home Affairs, Central Government of India.

The program was coordinated by Prof. B. S Mipun, DSW, RGU and Ms. Kristi Saikia, Programme Officer, NSS-RGU.

ROYAL ANNA SEVA

The Assam Royal Global University, a non-profit charitable society primarily dedicated to education and social welfare, has taken several initiatives aimed at promoting education and food security for vulnerable sections of society. As part of their Urban Social Responsibility (USR) efforts, they have launched the "ROYAL ANNA SEVA" project, which involves daily distribution of 100 lunch packets to needy and deprived individuals across the city.

During the challenging period of the COVID-19 pandemic, the university extended its support by distributing food materials among the poor and needy. This initiative significantly contributed to addressing the food security concerns of the most vulnerable individuals in the community.

The Department of Social Work at the university, in collaboration with the National Service Scheme (NSS-RGU), initiated this campaign on May 26, 2022. The campaign encompasses various locations across the city, with a focus on serving the vulnerable sections of society and addressing their food security needs. These efforts reflect the university's commitment to both education and the essential food security needs of the most disadvantaged members of the community, showcasing a holistic approach to social responsibility and community service.

The name of the student volunteers who have taken part in the campaign are listed below.
